British Columbia is a land of natural majestic beauty. Snow-capped mountains that reach for the sky, forest filled green valleys, plateaus of rolling grasslands, azure coloured lakes, sparkling streams and rushing rivers . . . Here, the west is still cowboy country! The best way to experience the west is at a guest ranch.

Guest ranches in British Columbia offer relaxed western hospitality, good food, and adventures that are unforgettable. Some are actual working cattle ranches where you can take part in the everyday schedule of cattle drives and branding. Others are luxury resorts with room service, air conditioning and spa facilities. Or choose a remote lodge where you can truly explore the back country on horseback.

Every guest ranch is different. Some are family oriented, while others cater to adults. There are guest ranches offering intermediate and advanced riding facilities, while others cater to novice riders. The wranglers are there to help you out, and before long you will feel right at home riding the range.

Each ranch has a variety of mounts, from gentle ponies to spirited horses, that are well trained and dependable. Guest ranches provide a variety of activities, such as fishing, canoeing, hiking, wildlife and nature viewing and special ranch events. All with legendary Western hospitality!

Enjoy horseback riding in the back country, on mountains trails, by pristine lakes and streams, see alpine meadows and savour the sweet smelling fresh air. Climb into a hay wagon or share tall tales around the campfire. . . it is all part of a guest ranch holiday.

A guest ranch experience will never be forgotten. It will remain as a treasured family memory. A time when you and your family shed your city lifestyle and stepped in the stirrups to experience the real west!
